DEFENDANTS’ JOINT RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF’S OBJECTION TO SCHEDULING ORDER

NOW COME the Defendants, by and through their undersigned counsel, and jointly respond to Plaintiff’s Objection to the Scheduling Order (“Objection”) (ECF No. 94) as follows:

This Court issued its Scheduling Order on April 10, 2025. On April 16, 2025, Defendants, through counsel, notified Plaintiff that they had no objection to the Scheduling Order. Plaintiff filed the instant Objection on April 22, 2025.

Defendants do not oppose Plaintiff’s request to take six depositions.

Defendants do, however, object to Plaintiff’s request to record all court proceedings, which is contrary to Local Rule 83.7(a)(3). Plaintiff’s claim that such recordings are necessary to protect his rights because the parties purportedly speak different languages is an insufficient legal basis to disregard this Court’s longstanding prohibition on recording in the courthouse, even if it were accurate (and it is not).

Defendants further oppose the remainder of Plaintiff’s Objection, which parrots many of the bizarre allegations raised in Plaintiff’s various prior filings, all of which are denied.

Therefore, except for Plaintiff’s request to take six depositions, Defendants oppose all of the relief requested in Plaintiff’s Objection.
